- Rights Respecting Schools, currently at bronze level (Rights Committed), working towards silver (Rights Aware) with lots of boxes being ticked. Miss Wallace is to undertake a course to assist this development – “101 ways to implement rights respecting schools”
- Eco updates: P3 and Mrs Elrick's messages on flying pigs have been really positive and has been picked up across the city to help raise awareness.
- We are awaiting confirmation regarding the sponsoring of the Eco pigs. The class has been asked to launch a litter pick. Sir David Attenborough has been written to and he replied!
- Old, dress even broken jewellery has been requested to glam up "glitter pigs"

POLICY UPDATES

- Nursery and school positive relationships and behaviour policies updates :
Previously an inconsistent use across the school of bounce back (resilience and relationships programme), now relaunched on Friday afternoons and consistently delivered throughout the school. Bounce Back is a significant part of our positive relationships policy and therefore it can now be “launched”. Another part of it is restorative approaches. Training and input for restorative approaches will take place next session. There is a page in the policy outlining expectation of staff, parents and pupils (page 8). This is on the website. We aim to make sure parents read up on it.

All classes are now involved in the class dojo app, positive feedback was obtained from parents of the council. Some parents are not yet enrolled, looking at an after school sign-up and info time, to help find out reasons why not signed up, see if there is a way we can support those who maybe don't have access.

- Anti-bullying policy update: Staff survey was completed, there was a parent and pupil survey completed. It was sent to the council where Caroline Hastings praised the positives, they are to be added to the write up.
- Head lice prevention and infection policy: We now have a policy written up which is based on 3 different national guidance policies. They are now available on the school's site with clickable links to bring you to the relevant documents. NHS has a link to treatments too, with advice on going to pharmacists to get correct treatments.

£2378.56 is current balance

Audit is due by 30th June, paperwork is going to be done by 31st March.

- Delivery of thank you cards are to be handed out soon, a few children are going to do it with Miss Forbes

6. Chair's Community Update

- The applications for the participatory budgeting has been put in (bid going in for £2500 for developing the outdoor space and £1000 for a "Connecting Cultures" event)
- Contacted Ann Knight regarding publicity for the event on the 10th of March. Still to hear back, Chair of the community council forum is also helping to chase up information.

7. AOCB

- Miss Forbes is going to Rwanda for 4 weeks in the summer. Developing education and bring back info (LFS). Costs £6500, £5000 is already funded. £1500 is still
